Good Cycling Code

Obey the rules of the road

- Always follow the Highway Code. Available at www.direct.gov.uk/TravelandTransport/Highwaycode/index.htm

Be courteous

- Remember that some people are hard of hearing or visually impaired. Don't assume everyone can see or hear you.
- Give way to pedestrians, wheelchair users and horse riders.
- Ring your bell or politely call out to alert other road users of your approach; acknowledge people who give way to you.

Care for the environment

- Try to reach the start of your journey by bike or public transport.
- Follow the Scottish Outdoor Access Code; in particular, respect crops, livestock and wildlife and take litter home.

Look after yourself

- Be alert to potential hazards and take extra care.
- Carry enough food and water, and a map.
- Keep your bike roadworthy; use lights in poor visibility (it's the law).
- Don't use any hand-held device like a mobile phone whilst cycling.
- Consider wearing a helmet and bright clothing.
- Always lock your bike to an immovable object with a
