My Favourite place by bike:

Calton Hill NT 16244 74194

Why it's my favourite place by bike:

It's close (for those of us living in Edinburgh). It gets me up and away from city traffic to a vantage point from where I can appreciate much of the beauty of the city, together with the fabulous landscape in which it is set. It's always a pleasure to take other people up there too. It is easy to get up to from Waterloo place. Return the same way or go down the David Hume path (more of a footpath really so take it gently) to Royal Terrace.
